5 3 2 6032 m2

A once in a lifetime opportunity to own a significant piece of local history.

Once the base for a massive pastoral holding this is one of the oldest established residences in the district. 'Fassifern Homestead' has been home to only a few families in its lifetime. Situated in a garden setting on 6,032 m2 of land you will enjoy the benefits of traditional country life with magnificent views of the main range without the worries attached to a large property. Significant work has been undertaken in the form of restumping replumbing & electrical. So many of the features of a bygone era include dual fire places, in the large living room, open verandas along with vj internal walls & much more. A beautiful part of the world to call home. Avoid disappointment & arrange an inspection to view this lovely home and garden. $448,000
